When Violence Occurs in the House of Worship: 9-1-1 Someone Got Shot In My Church

March 12, 2013
8 a.m. - 5 p.m.
$119.84

This instructional training course provides security information for church officials, church volunteers, security officers, patrol officers and crime prevention officers. The course exposes the amount of criminal acts that occur to churches throughout the country.

The course identifies and discusses various church responses to criminal acts. The course presentation will identify key church management issues to aid the church leadership, security officials and police officials with a mutual plan and response to crime. From the management of church building security, response to emergencies, employment practices, child care safety, medical emergencies and disaster relief, the presentation identifies key security areas that impact churches. The attendees will be exposed to strategies, applications and practices that will help religious organizations and law enforcement agencies partner in ways to prevent acts of violence and criminal acts towards houses of worship.

The course presentation instructor is Dr. Greg Robinson. Dr. Robinson is the crime prevention supervisor for the Lakeland Police Department and a local pastor. He is certified as a Florida Crime Prevention Practitioner, Victims Practitioner and Chaplain. Dr. Robinson served as a staff sergeant in the United States Army. He is a graduate of the United Bible College & Seminary. Dr Robinson is a nationally sought after speaker in the area of crime prevention.
