COURSE SUMMARY:

This two-day training, sponsored by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP), Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice and the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), will equip law enforcement first responders with effective responses to situations that involve contact with girls aged 12-17 who may be suspects, offenders, or victims.

Through lecture, interactive discussions and exercises, law enforcement officers will learn strategies they can use to increase positive interactions with and decrease the probability of arrest or incarceration of adolescent girls who may be at-risk of or involved in delinquent behavior.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

This course is specifically designed for law enforcement officers (e.g., first responders, patrol, youth officers, juvenile detectives) in jurisdictions experiencing an increase in adolescent girl-involved delinquent behavior who have the ability to implement this proactive approach in their policies and practices.

REGISTRATION/WORKSHOP INFORMATION:

- The training is offered at no cost to participants.
- Participants are responsible for all travel expenses and incidentals.
- Registration will begin at 8:00 a.m. on Thursday, October 21, 2010.
- The workshop will begin at 9:00 a.m. and conclude at 4:00 p.m. each day.
